The Carman crusade/concert at Tolland High School on July 10 was AWESOME! Carman was so thrilled and touched that I'm working to bring him back in our Region this fall! Details to be announced.

Irish composer (ie, "Days of Elijah"), singer and guitarist Robin Mark is returning to Connecticut for a worship conference and concert Saturday, August 23 at The First Cathedral in Bloomfield. See the flyer at tonight's coffeehouse or visit RockvilleNazarene.com.

Josh McDowell, Felix Chevandire, Bobby Bishop, The Wrecking, SiLOam, Unspoken, and Emissarius are all coming to Sturbridge MA for a two-day youth conference on August 22-23. Details online at www.RealMinistries.us.

TONIGHT'S FEATURE PRESENTATION:

Beyond the Veil was formed about five years ago. The group has grown to four members, including three sisters! Composing their own music, filled with telling lyrics and haunting melodies, Beyond the Veil strikes a chord with today's generation.

Lead vocals and keys are covered by Brittany Turner. Lending harmony and driving the beat on drums is sister Miriah Turner. Rounding out the three-part harmony and playing backup percussion is sister Sierra Turner. The newest member of the band, Phil Scott, completes the sound of this cutting edge group by playing lead guitar.

Located in Stevensville, Maryland in the Washington DC area, Beyond the Veil performs an average of 60 shows per year at coffeehouses, festivals, churches and youth events. Traveling the United States coast-to-coast, the band is hoping to tour Europe sometime in the near future. Tonight's performance is their only scheduled appearance in New England in 2008. Please give them a warm welcome to Rockville, Connecticut!
